

FM translator services like Air1 serve me in my region by providing access to family friendly radio broadcasting appropriate for my children. Such programming is a valuable asset to the local community that would not be replaced with the advent of LPFM. I strongly believe it is in the public interest to make programming like Air1 regionally available via the existing FM translator service.